MAHAR 1959

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

"Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again."

About Our Book.....

With this second issue of Toga we commemorate the second year in the existence of our school—the Ralph C. Mahar Regional School. We hope with this book to give to each graduate and each undergraduate a record of some of the highlights of this year.

The theme of our book is “footprints on the sands of time.” Each of us, as he passes through life, leaves a record which has its effect either for good or ill. Each of us is influenced by those who have gone before and will influence to some degree those who follow. No one of us can live solely unto himself. Just as this is true in the world at large, so is it true in any school, which is, after all, a “miniature” world, reflecting the problems and responsibilities of any human society.

Friendships, Joys, And Accomplishments

Mr. Hall

Dedicated In Grateful Recognition

Malcolm Kenneth Hall...

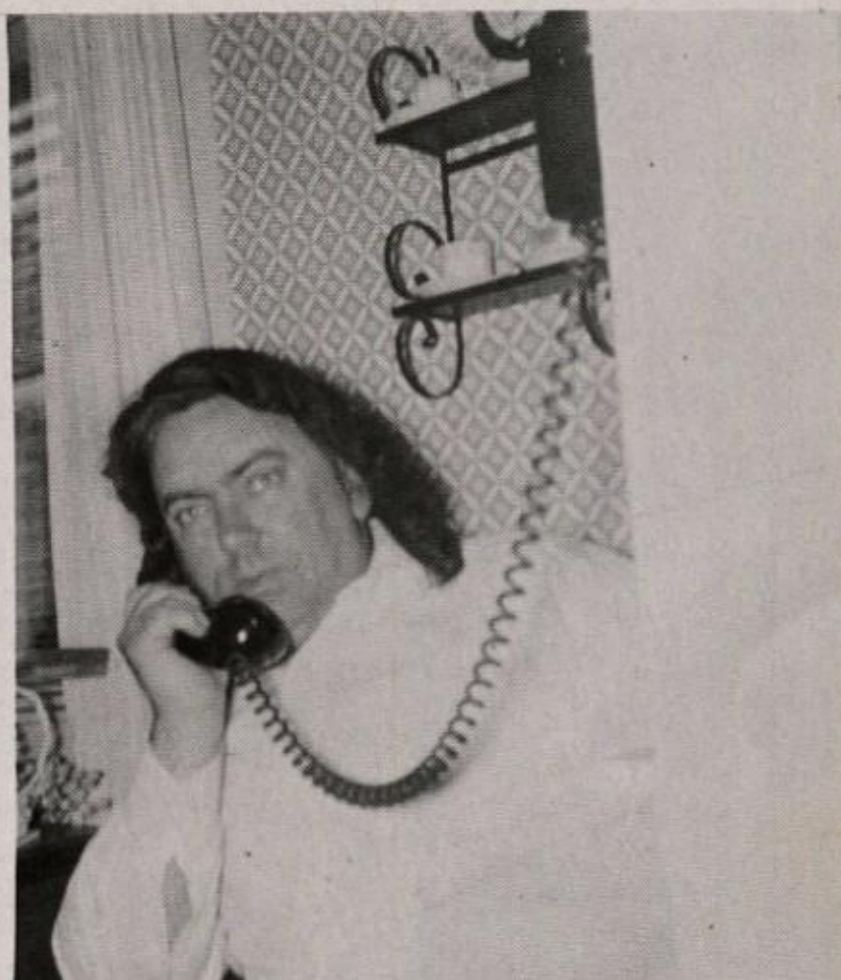

We, the class of 1959, fondly dedicate this issue of Toga to Mr. Hall

... a man dedicated to the task of bringing music and the opportunity to participate in musical groups to every boy and girl in Orange

... a man with a deep love for all young people

... a man ready to give his help and his understanding at all times.

We wish through this dedication to express our thanks to "Mal" for his friendship and for the expert training he has given us.

Of Time, Service And Self...

IN MEMORIAM...

Joseph K. Manning was born on March 24, 1925, in Boston. His wife is the former Mary C. Kloosterman, of Niagara Falls. He has two children: Patrick, aged 10 and Michael, aged 4.

He served as a scout with the 32nd Division, 126th Infantry Regiment in World War II, from July, 1943, to January, 1946, in New Guinea, Luzon and the South Phillipines.

He received a Bachelor's Degree from Niagara University in 1950 and a Master's Degree from Boston College in 1954.

He was a group worker at The Little House, a settlement house in Dorchester, and a counselor at Boston University Junior College and for the Youth Service Board at the Institute for Juvenile Delinquents in Bridge-water. In September, 1955, he accepted an appointment as counselor at Orange High School, and later he was guidance director at Mahar Regional School.

Gloria DeJackome was a quiet, friendly girl, who loved the out of doors. Many of us never knew her to share her friendship, as she was fatally injured when she was an eighth grade student. She was active in the Junior Band, Girl Scouts and the Congregational Church School. She was born December 25, 1941, and died November 25, 1954.

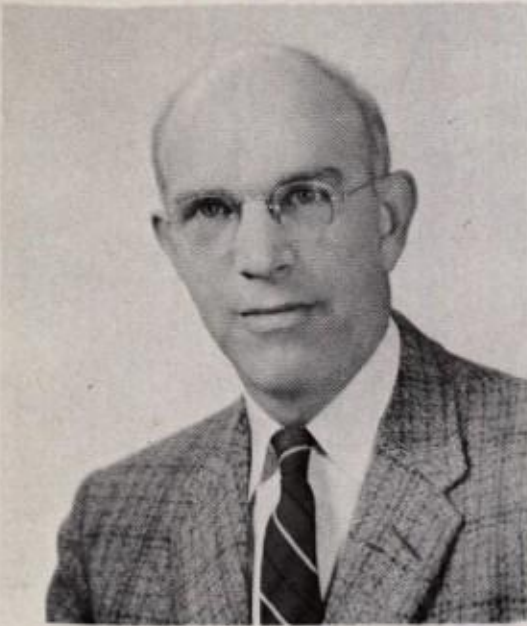

David Carey was in an automobile accident which caused his death when he was a junior at Mahar. He was a quiet, reserved fellow, whom we remember as a good friend. He was very interested in mechanics and spent many hours working on his car. He was born October 6, 1940, and died February 7, 1958.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We, the Class of 1959, are composed of students from Erving, Petersham, Turners Falls and Orange. We have all worked diligently in our respective schools and in the Ralph C. Mahar Regional School, both scholastically and socially.

ORANGE HISTORY

As frightened, insecure freshmen, we who entered Orange High School in 1955 comprised a class of 85. After the anticipated horrors of the Freshman Welcome were turned into fun for all concerned, we settled down to the job of establishing ourselves as a hard-working, respected class.

Mr. Kalogeros was our faculty advisor. We elected Alfred Letourneau as our first class president and gave him a working committee of Judith Punis, vice-president; Clifford Shatos, treasurer; and Linda Dexter, secretary. Representatives to the Student Council were Clifford Shatos, Alfred Letourneau, and Linda Dexter.

By the time we entered our second and last year at Orange High School we had lost our self-consciousness and had gained a new self-confidence. We elected to office William Amidon, president; Carole Small, vice-president; James Brown, treasurer; and Barbara Tepper, secretary. Our representatives to the Student Council were Clifford Shatos, Linda Dexter, William Amidon, James Brown and Sue Belcher.

Determined to make our last year at Orange High School memorable, we entered the one-act play competition with a play entitled "The Lady Who Ate an Oyster". This was under the direction of Miss Ryan (now Mrs. Darey). Our play won first prize in the competition and Linda Dexter and Charlotte Hall won additional honors for our class by being chosen the best actresses from all the productions.

In May we held our Sophomore Hop. Determined to make it different, and since it was leap year, we made the ruling that a girl could date a boy, if she so desired. In keeping with the idea of being different, we made the decorations conform to a Hawaiian luau, with Mr. Hall and his "Honoluluites" strumming dance music in the background.

In the last Minstrel Show at Orange High School, William Amidon and Alfred Letourneau represented our class as end men.

All in all it was a good year and we left Orange High School halls with a mixed feeling of sorrow and accomplishment.

PETERSHAM HISTORY

The present Petersham seniors of Mahar began their freshman year with twelve pupils. Soon after school opened in September we had our first class meeting and elected the following officers: president, Geraldine Smith; vice-president, Rexyne Lawson; secretary, Doris Russell; treasurer, Ronald Banks. Our class advisor was Mrs. Phillips.

Our major activity for that year was the Freshman Sport Dance, held on March 23, 1956, in the school gymnasium. Roberta's Trio furnished the music for this social. Our class colors this year were blue and gold.

At the end of this year Geraldine Smith left to attend the Maria Assumpta Academy and Sidney Legare left to obtain a job.

We began our sophomore year with ten students. At our first class meeting in September we elected our officers as follows: president, Remyne Lawson; vice-president, Ronald Banks; secretary, Doris Russell; treasurer, Helen Knapp. Our class advisor this year was Mrs. Crowson.

The Freshman Initiation, our only activity for the year, was held on October 5, 1957, in the school gymnasium. The theme was a satire on "Truth or Consequences". Doris Russell acted as mistress of ceremonies, with Michael Thayer assisting.

Doris Russell and Michael Thayer were on the basketball team this year. In February we welcomed Joyce Lundgren to our class.

We finished our second and last year in Petersham with anticipation about what was waiting for us at Mahar Regional High School in Orange.

TURNERS FALLS HISTORY

On a warm September morning in 1955 the seniors from Millers Falls entered Turners Falls High School. We were bewildered, but we had a burning desire to take part in the many school functions and learn as much as we could.

However, most of the learning of the first few weeks consisted of detentions and help slips. The most fearful ordeal of that first year was the Freshman Hop, where we were put through our paces by the seniors, and dragged through our first receiving line. We diligently supported our school by attending every game and yelling ourselves hoarse. By the end of the year we entered into many extra-curricular activities and we were well on our way to a good solid high school career.

With the success of our first year behind us, we looked forward to our sophomore year with anticipation. Full of importance, we held our first class project—the "Sophomore Social", which was proclaimed a great success by all who attended. For the first time we participated in commencement exercises, and then we sadly left Turners Falls High School, looking with eagerness toward our brand new school in Orange.

MAHAR HISTORY

We entered the new Mahar Regional High School in 1957 as upperclassmen. We were wary but still excited and expectant. We soon got into the "swing of things" and discovered that the merger of the surrounding schools with us would be a success.

We elected to office Clifford Shatos, president; Eleanor Paluilis, vice-president; Alfred Letourneau, treasurer; and Judith Punis, secretary. Suzanne Belcher, Clifford Shatos, Judy Punis, Alfred Letourneau, William Amidon, Joyce Fellows, Denise Duval and Sandra Richard represented our class in the Student Council.

Our Girls' State representative was Gayle Johnson and our Boys' State representatives were John Magee, William Amidon and Alfred Letourneau.

In the first Minstrel Show ever held at Mahar, Alfred Letourneau, James Hennessy and Allen Woods entertained as end men from our class.

The Good Government Exchange students were Clifford Shatos and William Amidon.

In February we, along with the sophomores and seniors, took part in the one-act play presentation.

We received our long-awaited class rings in March, and on May 2 we held our Junior Prom, with an Arabian Nights theme.

In September, 1958, we turned our footsteps back to Mahar for the final year. We had practically no time to savor the idea of being seniors at last, because we had so much to plan and to do.

For our final class officers we elected Dennis Bundy, president; Eleanor Paluilis, vice-president; Clifford Shatos, treasurer, and Charlotte Hall, secretary.

Our Student Council representatives were William Amidon, president; Sue Belcher, recording secretary; Carole Small, corresponding secretary; Carlene Humphrey, vice-president; Roberta Powers, Remyne Lawson, Gayle Johnson, Clifford Shatos and Francis Driscoll.

We selected as our class motto — "We Grow As We Go"; our class flower — white rose; our class colors — light blue and white; and our cap and gown colors — light blue and white.

Under Mr. Hampe's direction we presented the one-act play, "Thursday Evening".

During this last year, in a flurry of excitement and anticipation, we posed for class pictures, held all kinds of functions to raise money for the class fund, watched for letters from colleges and places of employment, and most important of all watched ourselves grow in maturity and stature.

In the Minstrel Show our class was well represented once again. Ronald Banks entertained as interlocutor and Alfred Letourneau, Francis Driscoll, Dennis Bundy and James Hennessy entertained as senior end men.

Senior All State representatives were Virginia Richards, William Amidon, Nancy Cloutier and Ward Taylor.

Carlene Humphrey was the proud recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award.

April 19 marked the beginning of the trip to Washington, which only twenty-one students and two chaperones took. They returned on the twenty-fifth.

The biggest underlying event of the year has been the making of the yearbook, Toga. Thanks to many members of the class and especially to Mr. Bagley this book will be a success.

On June 7, Baccalaureate was held. On June 9, Class Night was held. On June 11, we of the senior class were officially graduated, and on the following night we all got together for our last big school event, which was the senior prom. The theme was "A Midsummer Night's Dream".

Our class advisor for our last and most important year in high school was Mrs. Ryan. She has worked as hard for us as we have for ourselves.

Such solemn faces for so festive an occasion.

THEN CAME OUR SENIOR

PROM--AND SO FAREWELL....

Mr. Sperry, a member of the Regional School Committee.

Wasn't it a beautiful prom!

The VIP's — Principal Cook; Mrs. Hastings and Superintendent Hastings; and the senior class officers: Charlotte Hall, Clifford Shatos, Eleanor Paluilis, and Dennis Bundy.

Our Senior Prom, "A Midsummer Night's Dream", was held on Friday, June 12, at the end of Commencement Week. For it the gymnasium was gaily decorated. The boys in their white coats and the girls in their beautiful gowns also added color to a colorful occasion. Mal Hall and his orchestra provided music that was just right. It was a wonderful event, and we hated to see it and our school year come to a close.

SENIORS VISIT WASHINGTON

Twenty-one members of the Senior Class and two chaperones, Miss Perkins and Mrs. Lariviere, left from the school at eight o'clock Saturday morning, April 18, and headed for New York. We checked into the Paramount Hotel in New York Saturday afternoon. Sunday morning we left for Washington, D. C., where we stayed from Sunday to Wednesday at the Raleigh Hotel. The weather was very good during the trip and added to everyone's pleasure. Some interesting places that we visited were: Mount Vernon, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the Capitol, the Lincoln Memorial, and the Ford Theater. The group also went on the Moonlight Cruise on the Potomac. When we returned to New York, we took the guided tour of the NBC Building. After six days of fun, we returned home Friday night, April 24.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1959, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament:

Roger Allen leaves his neat appearance to Bruce Dexter.

Natalie Ames leaves as Mrs. Ernest Goule. How else?

William Amidon leaves his booming voice to Timmy Valade.

David Atherton leaves his alibis to Edmond Woods.

Florence Aubertine leaves her history class and hopes that history doesn't repeat itself.

Ronald Auger leaves his love for hot rods to Carol Cloukey.

Fred Bacigaulpo leaves his dates in the office to Curtis Heath.

Nancy Baker leaves her mishaps in physical education to Nancy Bickley.

Albert Baltren leaves his Athol girls to someone who can please them all.

Ronald Banks leaves his sneakers to all the sneaks.

Alfred Barrett leaves his favorite smoking corner to anyone who can find it.

Suzanne Belcher leaves her cute giggle to Carol Parenchuck.

Jack Brackett leaves his typing class with regret.

James Brown leaves his reserved seats in the auditorium to David Stockwell.

David Bryniarski leaves his bombastic voice to David Gale.

Dennis Bundy leaves his position as president of the senior class to Danny Stockwell in hopes that he can accomplish his duties.

Robert Chandler leaves his Saturday night trips to Millers Falls, as he has left for the Navy.

Peter Chiasson leaves his trapeze build to Lloyd Rowe.

Nancy Cloutier leaves to join the National Guard.

Judy Collins leaves as an experienced housekeeper in Room 2.

Dianne Crosby leaves her poised classroom manners in S.O.P. to Lynn Warner.

Linda Dexter leaves her position in the lunch line to anyone who has short legs.

JoAnn Dill leaves her beautiful hair to Joyce Davenport.

Francis Driscoll leaves the English language in a mess.

Donald Drowski leaves to join the cast of Madame Butterfly.

Denise Duval leaves her way with the teachers to anyone who needs it.

Joyce Fellows leaves her "seriousness of purpose" to next year's senior girls.

Linda Forster leaves her nightly pin-ups to Donna Vorce.

Donald Foster leaves with just a smile.

James Fournier leaves all his unfinished homework assignments to be divided among next year's senior boys.

Sandra Goselin leaves her butts in the ventilators in the girls' rooms.

Jan Guetti leaves her feminine ways to Helen Riggs.

Charlotte Hall leaves her position in the minstrel show to her sister, who will carry on the Hall tradition.

James Hennessy leaves his old flames to Kenny Burrill.

Edward Hickey leaves as "Bink".

Peter Holmes leaves as "Romeo of 1959".

Muriel Holden leaves to make room for her brother.

Nancy Holden leaves with her eye on marriage.

Carlene Humphrey leaves her brains to be divided among the freshman girls.

Marjorie Hurd leaves her smile to Sally Reid.

Suzanne Jochim leaves her fingernails to Barbara Chenausky.

Gayle Johnson leaves her rosy cheeks to Pamela Bradshaw.

Helen Knapp leaves her brother in the capable hands of the junior girls.

Richard Knapp leaves his dancing ability to Kenny Whitaker.

Alfred Laffond leaves his waves to Brian Haskins.

Rexyne Lawson leaves to be a professional meat weigher in Bruno's Grocery Store.

Alfred Letourneau leaves his impromptu ways for Linda to weep over.

Francine Letourneau leaves to do research on the great novel Kamala and Amala.

Deborah Mackey leaves her water skis to Donna Knowlton.

John Magee leaves to take the position of superintendent of the Petersham elementary school.

Alfred Miller leaves his way with the senior girls to George Willard.

Paul Millett leaves his posture to Edward Piragis.

Langdon Moore leaves silence to Roger Akers.

Muriel North leaves her sweet disposition to her sister Dorothy.

Eleanor Paluilis leaves her innocent expressions to Karen Semb.

Tyrone Patrick, who has joined the Navy, leaves his arguments in group guidance to anyone who thinks he can outdo his opponents.

Mary Pedrazzi leaves her yodeling to Mabel Richardson.

Roberta Powers leaves her shoes to be divided among the junior girls.

Paula Preece leaves her friendly disposition to Anne Baltren.

Judy Punis leaves her face-making to Lois Nelson.

Jackie Raymond leaves a few pounds to Vicky Cloukey.

Thomas Reid leaves, but he is still waiting for Paula.

Sandra Richard leaves her rendezvous on Myrtle Street corner to Linda Masellis.

Virginia Richards leaves her posture-pedic mattress to Dawn Mills.

Doris Russell leaves her congeniality for everyone to remember her by.

Judith Sahagian leaves her elevator shoes to Janice Denno.

Carole Small leaves her cutting in the lunch line to Sandra Pratt.

Clifford Shatos leaves his masculine ways to the underclass boys.

Suellen Sixt leaves reading the book How to Light Filters.

Richard Stone has nothing left to leave.

Frederick Sylvester leaves to take the part of Tweety at Warner Brother's studio.

Ward Taylor leaves his tuba no longer looking like a tuba.

Barbara Tepper leaves on a rocket ship for Mars, where she will be hostess at the first outer space party.

Michael Thayer leaves her talkative boy pals with regret.

Marsha Turner leaves her discussions at the lunch table to anyone who likes to talk about school.

Jane Twombly leaves her gift of gab to Sally Eames.

Lloyd Upham leaves unsuccessfully after failing to get a date with that senior girl in review math.

Joanne Vaillencourt leaves her cat naps at pajama parties to anyone who suffers from insomnia.

Julia Venskowski leaves just as she is beginning to get acquainted.

Linda Waid leaves her shorthand ability to all girls taking Shorthand II.

Sharon Warner leaves with a religious glow to take the part of the witch in Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.

Judy White leaves to take part in the All-American Gum-Chewers Contest.

Gene Whitney leaves his "done-school-for-most" attitude to Douglas Welcome.

Laura Willard leaves her good behavior in clerical office practice to Helen Riggs.

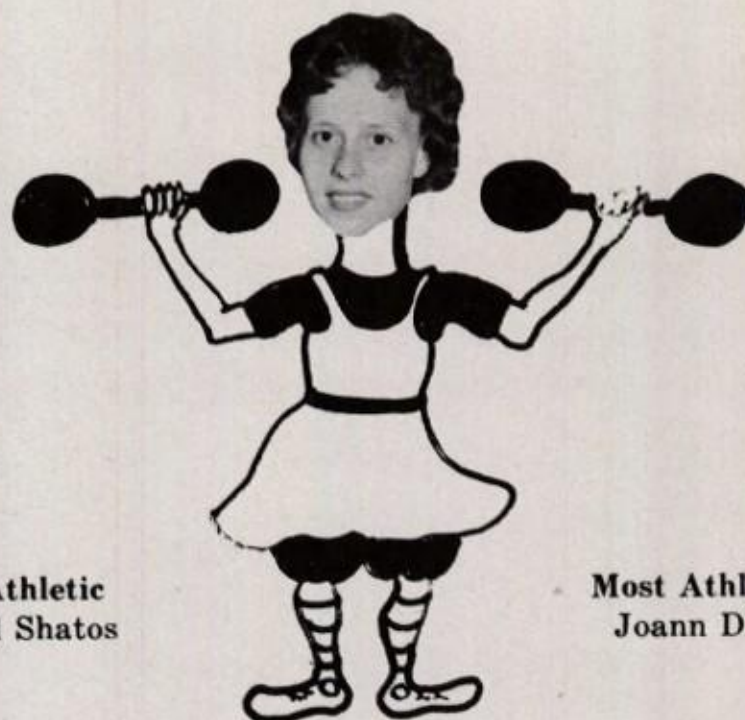

Allen Woods leaves his scarlet complexion to Charles Harris.

In witness whereof, we, the Class of 1959, the testators, have set our hands and seal hereto this eleventh day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine.

COMMENCEMENT

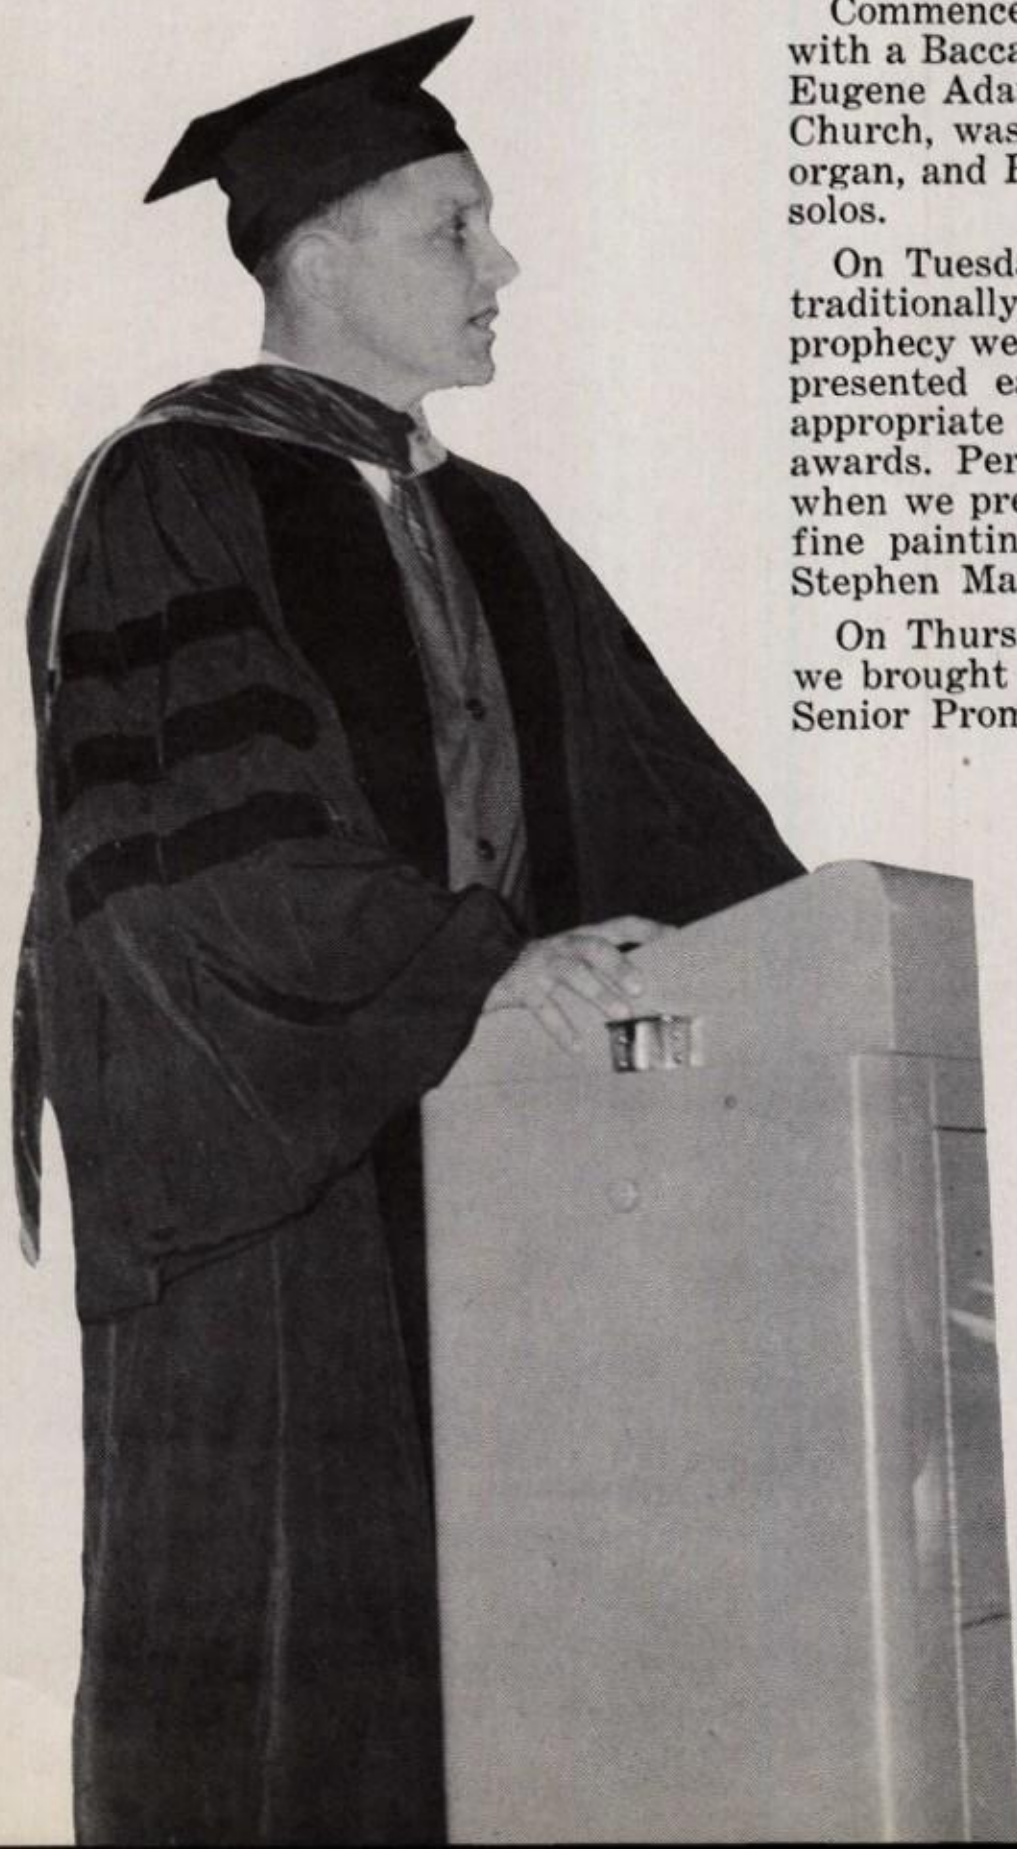

Commencement Week began on Sunday, June 7, with a Baccalaureate service in the auditorium. Rev. Eugene Adams, minister of the Orange Universalist Church, was the speaker. Mr. Hall played the new organ, and Ronald Banks and William Amidon sang solos.

On Tuesday, June 9, Class Night was held in a traditionally lighter mood. The class history and prophecy were presented, and a committee of juniors presented each of us a gift, accompanied by an appropriate verse. Mr. Magee presented various awards. Perhaps the high point of the evening came when we presented our class gift to the school — a fine painting of an old Deerfield house, done by Stephen Maniati.

On Thursday we were graduated, and on Friday we brought the week to a gala conclusion with the Senior Prom.

JUNE 11, 1959

Our graduation speaker was Dr. Stanley Salwak, a graduate of Orange High School, who is now Assistant to the Provost at the University of Massachusetts.

Finished with the first step toward graduation.

Before the service. If William Amidon and Ronald Banks look a little "unhappy", it's because each of them has still to do his solo.

BACCALAUREATE

The School Marshal, David Bryniarski, and the Class Marshal, Francis Driscoll.

There's nothing to this Commencement Week—except a lot of marching!

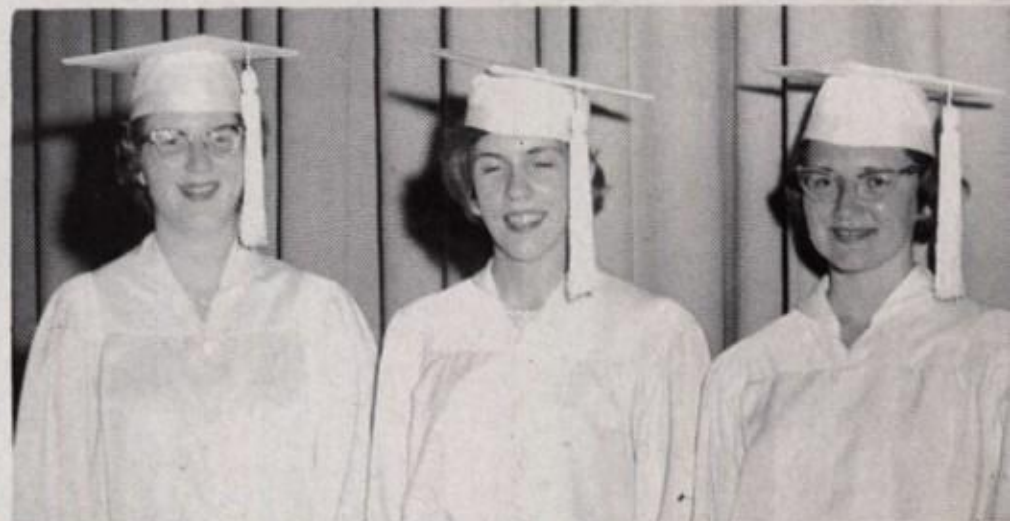

As we said before—just a lot of marching!

CLASS NIGHT

Readers of the class history: Doris Russell, Barbara Tepper, and Nancy Baker.

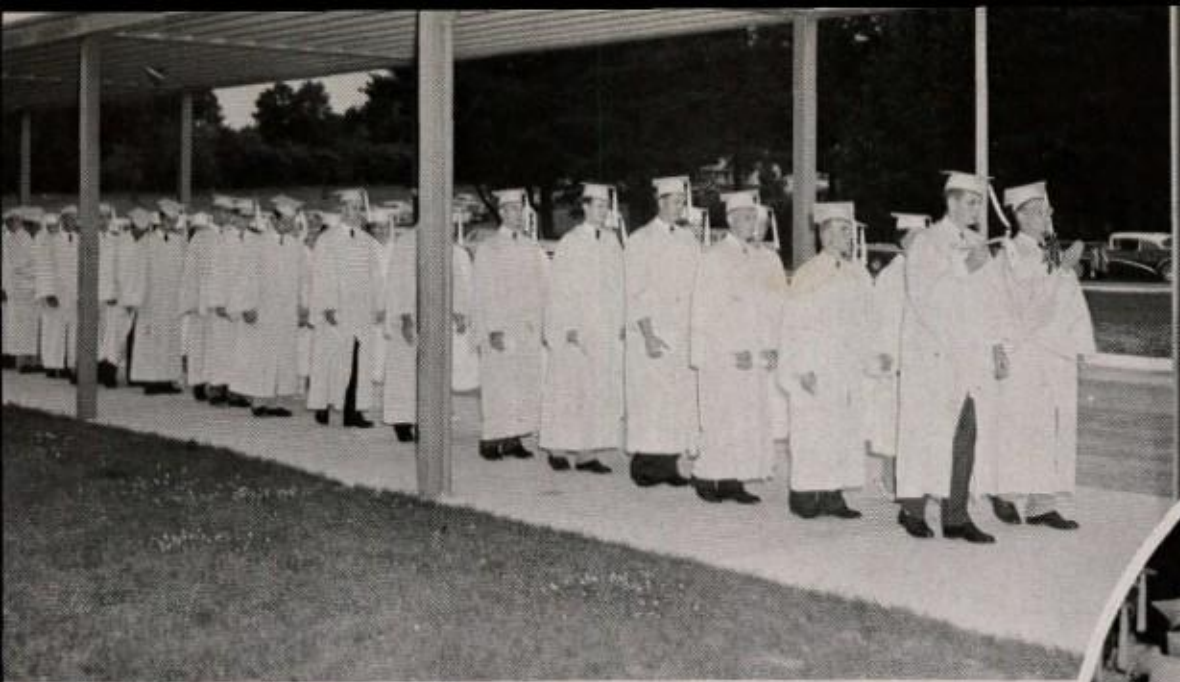

Anna Stone presents a gift to Mary Pedrazzi.

Readers of the class prophecy: Muriel Holden, Francis Driscoll, and Nancy Cloutier.

The junior class committee in charge of the class gifts: Frances Donahue, Nancy Bickley, Judy Cloukey, Lynn Warner, Carol Webster, Jane Hatch, Dennis Driscoll, Anna Stone, Kenneth Whitaker, and Richard Rowe.

On the march again—this time for the last time.

Coming into the auditorium.

Mrs. Jacob Bryniarski presents the Mahar Parent Teacher Student Organization Scholarship to Jacqueline Raymond.

AND FINALLY...GRADUATION...

The really significant event of Commencement Week was, of course, graduation, which was held Thursday, June 11, in the auditorium. Our speaker was Dr. Stanley Salwak. Many special awards and scholarships were given out and then the evening was climaxed for each of us as we were called to receive our diplomas. Of special interest this year was that we were joined by four persons from the adult education program, who received their diplomas along with us.

Mr. Olson presents a Mahar Faculty Gift Scholarship to Eleanor Paulilis.

Mrs. Pearl C. Hill presents the Athol-Orange Registered Nurses' Association Scholarship to Francine Letourneau.

The solemn moment has arrived, and Mr. Hastings is about to give the diploma to William Amidon.

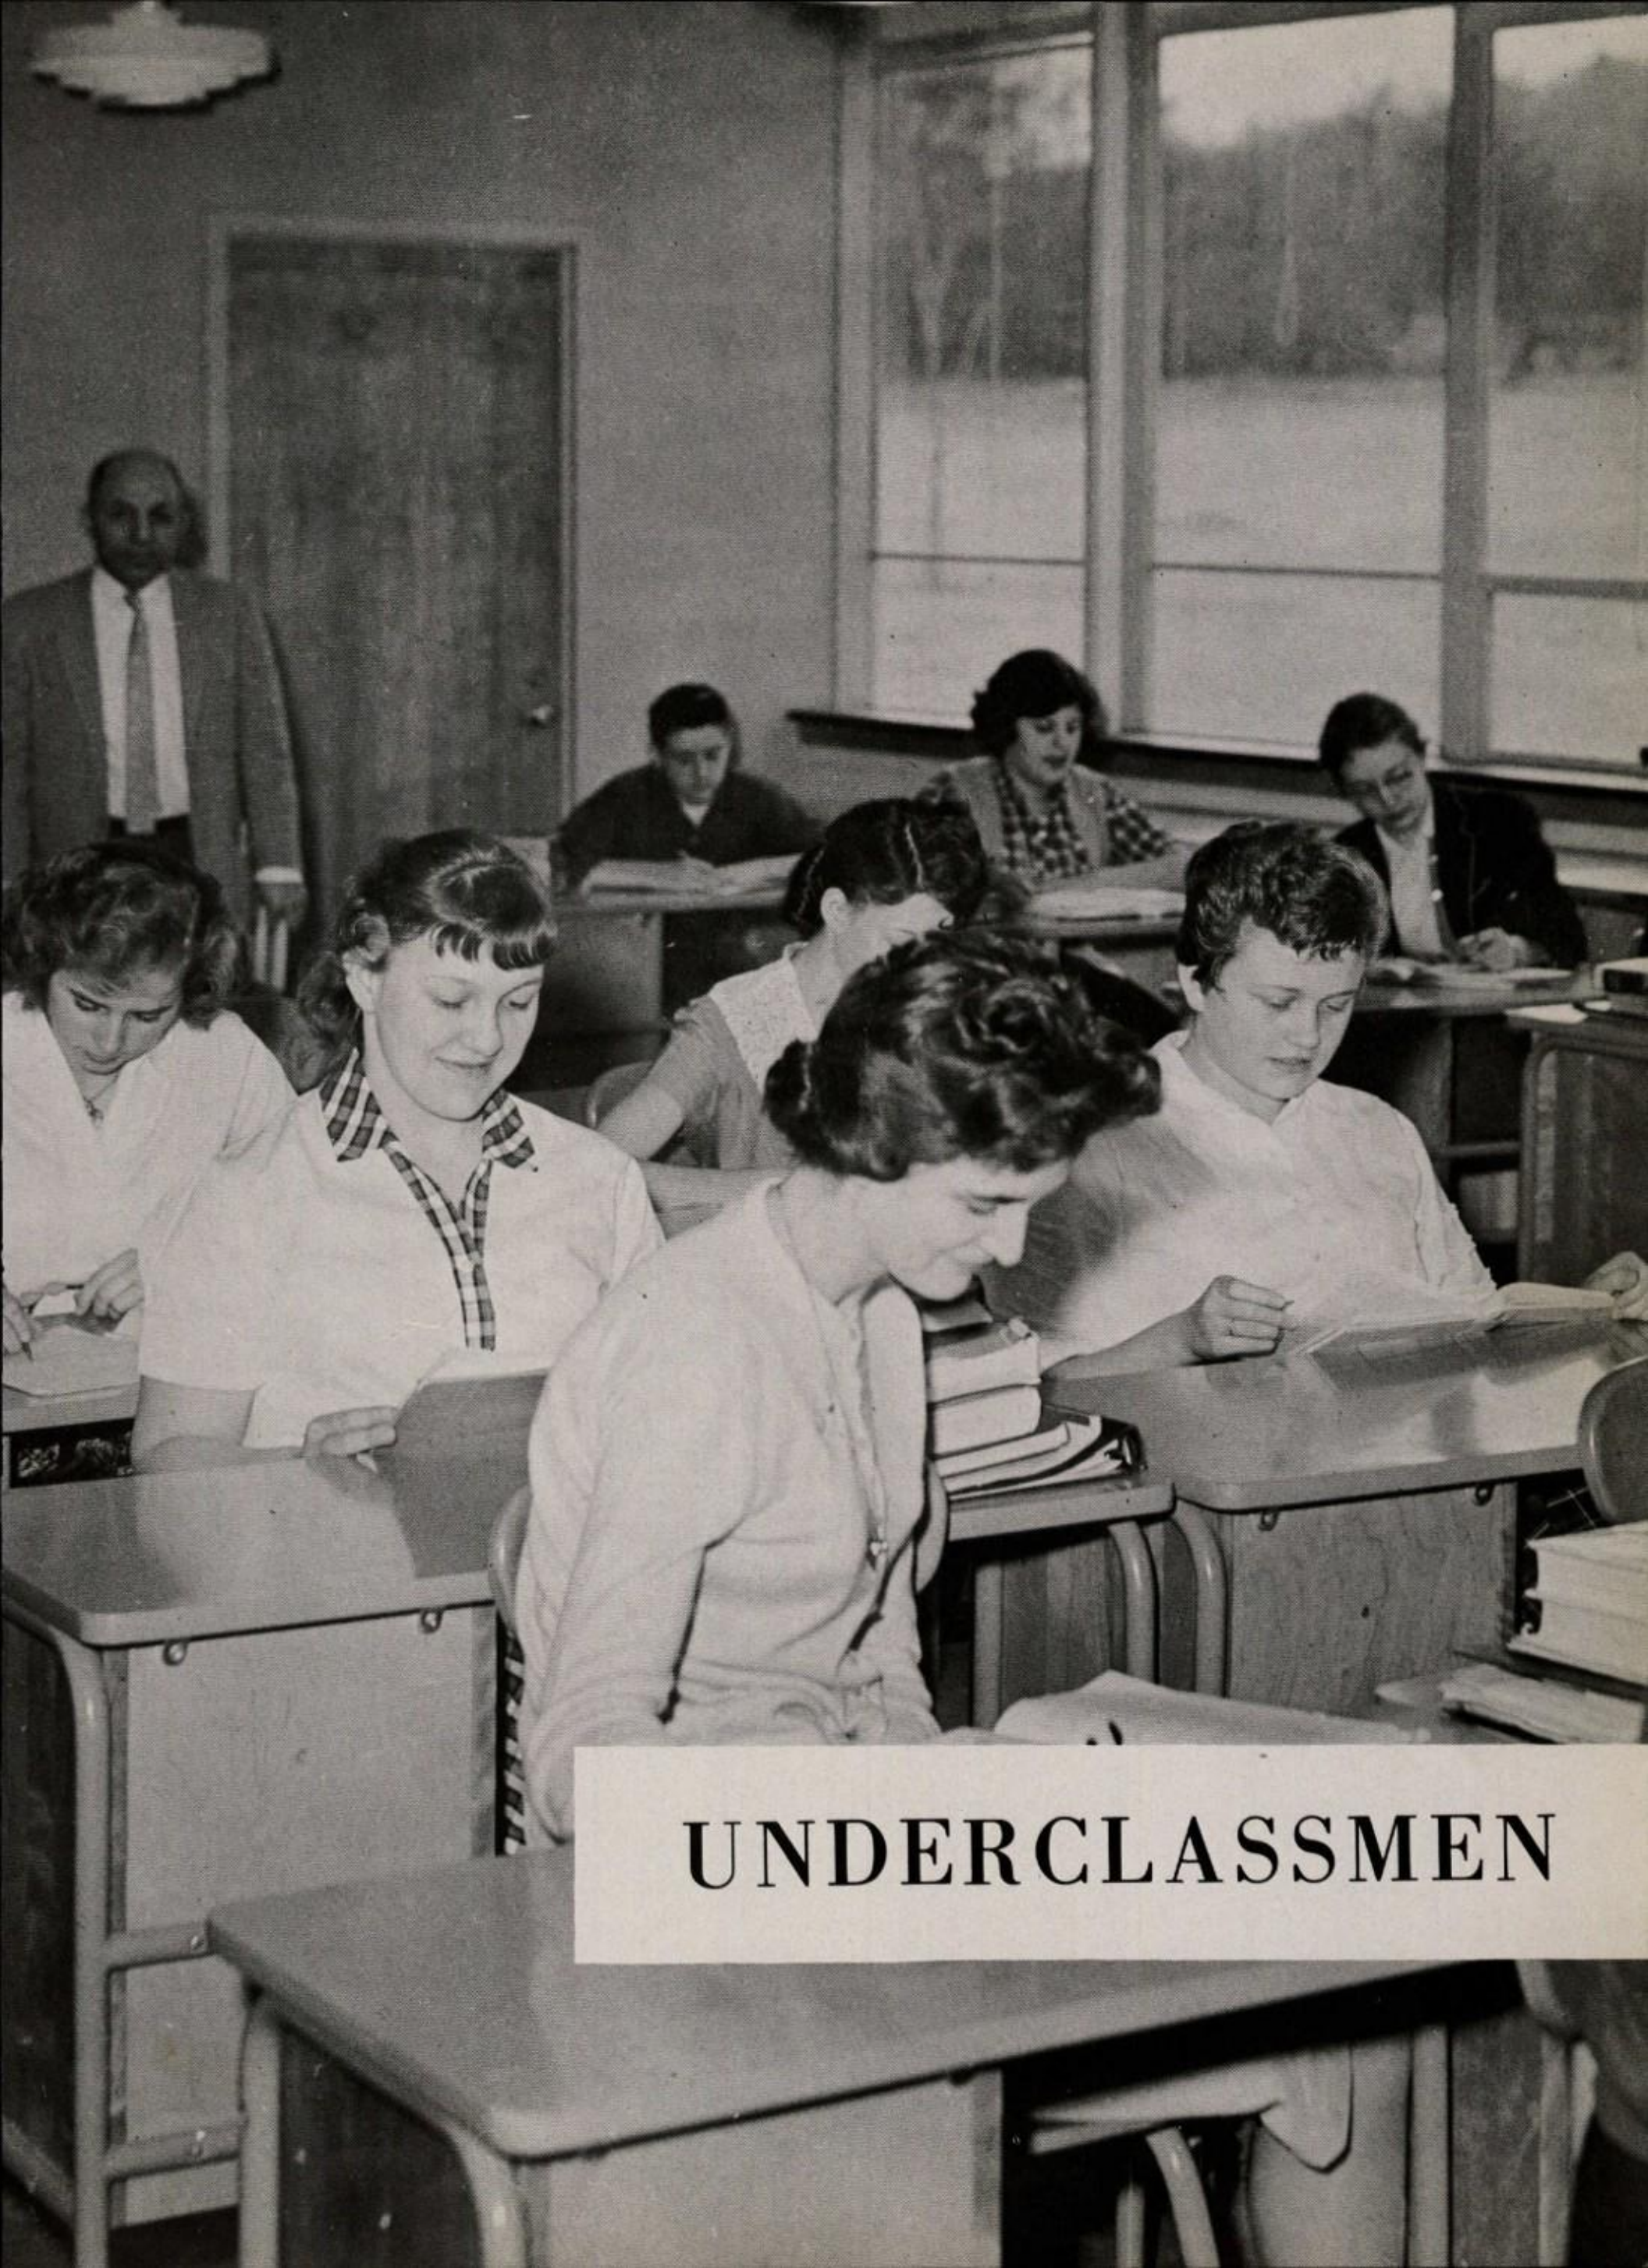

Next came Clifford Shatos' turn.

Linda Dexter receives her diploma and congratulations from Mr. Hastings.

And so—the end!

UNDERCLASSMEN

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Verne Bryant, Treasurer; Mary Giniusz, Vice-President; Daniel Stockwell, President; Mabel Richardson, Secretary.

In the fall of 1958 the class of 1960 entered Mahar Regional High School bearing the honorable title of "upperclassmen." We had previously elected class officers. In the Student Council we were represented by Judy Lambert, Dorothy North, David Stockwell, Carol Webster, Pamela Bradshaw, Ann Bunumas, Jane Hatch, Charles Harris, Sylvia Cosby, and Frances Donahue. In November under the supervision of our class advisor, Mr. Hmieleski, we presented our Junior Prom, "Moonlight and Roses", and under the direction of Miss Costello we presented the one-act play The Best There Is, which was the winner of the one-act play contest.

ADVISOR
Mr. Bagley

The yearbook staff has worked long and hard to produce this year's Toga, but because of a lack of space we are unable to mention and give credit to all the individuals who participated in the making of this book. To the various editors of the book and to Mr. Bagley, our yearbook advisor, we give a special word of thanks. To all of the other students who so generously gave of their time and effort to make the 1959 Toga the success that it is, we express our appreciation and thanks.

The National Honor Society was established to stimulate scholarship, leadership, service and character among the students in secondary schools of this country.

The local chapters have as members (junior and senior high) students who are outstanding in these qualities.

To be admitted to the National Honor Society a student must earn at least a B average for the year in all subjects taken. He is then judged by the faculty (a faculty poll is taken) to determine whether or not he meets the requirements for citizenship and character.

The following seniors were admitted to the National Honor Society this year: William Amidon, Nancy Baker, Suzanne Belcher, David Bryniarski, Peter Chiasson, Linda Dexter, Denise Duval, Charlotte Hall, Carlene Humphrey, Gayle Johnson, Francine Letourneau, John Magee, Langdon Moore, Jacqueline Raymond, Clifford Shatos, Carole Small, Ward Taylor, and Linda Waid.

Junior National Honor Society. First Row: Marylee Sperry, Cheryl Bundy, Sandra Lewis, Barbara Hyman, Margaret Woodbury, Carol Lauriat, Marlene Shackett, Andriena Lundgren, Kathleen Rogers. Second Row: Jeffrey Amidon, Dorothy Forster, Diane Robinson, Gail Drury, Leanne Aguda, Robert Scott, Anne Baltren, Rebecca Swope, Janice Harty, Prudence Ward, Judith Durkee, Norman Sixt. Absent: Paul Deegan, Marcia Hanson, Eleanor Mahar, Elizabeth Mattson, Barbara Miniuks, Frank Moore.

Sue Belcher, Betty Crocker Homemaker Award.

Peter Chiasson, Rennsalaer Medal for Excellence in Mathematics.

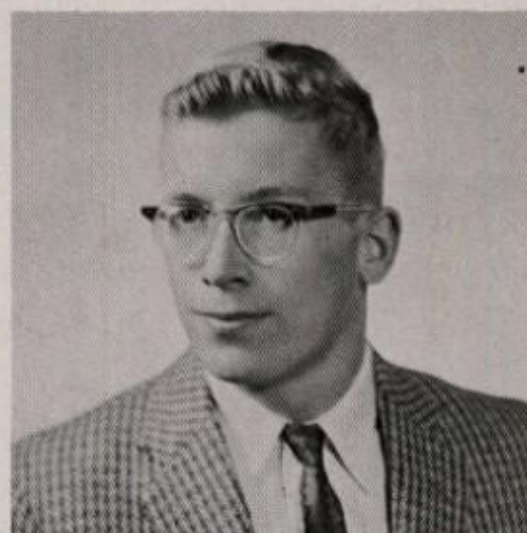

Carlene Humphrey, D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award.

AWARDS

All State—Virginia Richards, Nancy Cloutier, and William Amidon. Not shown: Ward Taylor.

Langdon Moore, Bausch and Lomb Plaque for Excellence in Science, and Threadwell Tap and Die Corporation Scholarship.

Ward Taylor, American Society of Tool Engineers (Chapter 100) Scholarship.

Girls' State—Janice Denno and Mabel Richardson.

Boys' State—Vernon Coutu and Raymond Deyo. Not shown: David Stockwell, Daniel Stockwell, and Robert Wasleski.

Linda Dexter, David Bryniarski, Barbara Tepper and Joanne Vaillencourt as they appeared in the senior class play, Thursday Evening.

Eugene Maleski and Sally Day in the sophomore class play, The Strange Gate.

The senior high classes presented the annual one-act plays on November 7, 1958.

The sophomores presented The Strange Gate. Eugene Maleski, Robert Ward, Wilfred Stockwell, Sally Day, and Mary Lou Bargerion made up the cast. This play was coached by Mrs. Phillips.

Miss Costello coached The Best There Is, a play which the juniors presented. The cast included Judith Raymond, Judith Greanier, David Stockwell, Mary Giniusz, Daniel Stockwell, Ann Bunumas, William Jamison, Gloria Miville, and Doris Knetchel.

David Bryniarski, Barbara Tepper, Joanne Vaillencourt, and Linda Dexter composed the senior cast which, coached by Mr. Hampe, presented Thursday Evening.

All the plays were well received. However, Miss Barbara Crosby, Mrs. Barbara Waters, and Mrs. Alice Robbins judged the junior class as outstanding in poise, personality, diction, and talent.

The Junior Band provided music between the plays.

Miss Costello and the cast of the winning play, The Best There Is, presented by the junior class.

George and Emily (Francis Driscoll and Charlotte Hall) meet after school, just before they discover that they love each other.

George and Emily get married. Emily's father (Peter Chiasson) turns away, looking sad.

TALENTED THESPIANS

The Stage Manager (William Amidon) portrays the minister who marries the young couple.

On February 5 the Dramatics Department presented the three-act play Our Town, by Thornton Wilder. New England life and philosophy of the early 1900's was portrayed by dramatizing the lives of the town's inhabitants. This was the first time that a play of such dimensions has been presented, and it was well presented and received, thanks to the work of a fine cast and of Mrs. Ryan, the director.

Mr. Hall and Linda Hall played the organ between acts and during parts of the play.

The entire cast of Our Town, with Mrs. Ryan, the director. They gave a memorable performance of a beautiful and moving play, and what they did should set a standard for future groups to live up to.

MINISTREL SHOW

"High Society": Charlotte Hall and Eleanor Paluilis.

Under the direction of Mr. Hall, and with the faculty's assistance, the second Minstrel Show of Mahar Regional High School took place on April 9, 10, and 11, 1959. The show was divided into three main parts: Minstrel, Olio, and Finale.

The Minstrel part consisted of the humorous antics of the end men, a song routine done by four talented senior girls, and a tap dance routine by another talented senior. An entertaining act also included was a song-and-dance routine which dated back to vaudeville days.

The second part of the Minstrel Show was the Olio, which consisted of eleven main acts. There were four grades that took part in the Olio: 9, 10, 11, and 12. The Olio was a show in itself, one act following another in rapid succession. There was snap, originality, dancing, pantomime, and harmony, all combining to provide real entertainment.

The Finale also went to some length, with quite a talented group at work. An excellent job was done on the drums, which gave background to several of the numbers.

The cast in this year's show was one of the largest ever used by Mr. Hall. Because of the number of students participating and the extended program, no encores were given.

The entire Minstrel Show chorus and cast added up to a large group.

The end men: Dennis Bundy, Richard Gore, Jim Hennessy, Francis Driscoll, Alfred Letourneau, Charles Harris.

"Harmony Girls": Joyce Fellows, Roberta Powers, Linda Dexter, Barbara Tepper.

"When We're M-A- double R-I-E-D": Joanne Vaillencourt, Nancy Baker, Sandra Richard, Paula Preece, Denise Duval, Eleanor Paluilis, Michael Thayer, Judy Punis.

When Those Minstrel Tunes Begin...

"Alvin's Harmonica": Joan Labonte, Mabel Richardson, Jerilyn Ball, Linda Masellis.

"Hazel Eyes": Charlotte Hall

"I Enjoy Being a Girl": Donna Vorce and Linda Forster.

"Poor Little Piggy Bank": Gloria Miville and Donna Knowlton.

"Sisters": James Brown, Richard Knapp, Peter Chiasson, John Magee, David Bryniarski, Clifford Shatos, Albert Baltren, Langdon Moore.

"Hortense": Carol Rowe, Lynn Barcome, Nancy Vorce, Edythe Watson, Dawn Mills, Sally Walker, Carol Cloutier.

When The Chorus Starts To Sing...

"Diamond's Are a Girl's Best Friend": Sally Day, Mary Sklenar, Kathy Burrill, Carol English, Sally Laughton, Leslie Hastings, Mary Ann Ward.

"Poor Unhappy Maids": Sue Jochim, Doris Russell, Muriel Holden, Judy White, Deborah Mackey, Remyne Lawson, Jane Twombly, Sue Belcher.

"Joe's Polka Boys": Earl Drew, David Bryniarski, Joseph Hartzens, James Cornwell.

"It's Minstrel Time Again": Brian Haskins and Raymond Deyo.

1958 JUNIOR

On November 21, after days of eager planning and working and with all the usual excitement about dates, gowns, and corsages, the annual Junior Prom was held in the cafeteria. The theme of the prom was "Moonlight and Roses". Honored guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell, Mr. and Mrs. Hmieski, Mr. and Mrs. Cook, and Mr. and Mrs. Hastings. Music was provided by Mal Hall's Orchestra.

Doris Knetchel and Dennis Driscoll.

Carol Webster and David Wilson with two special guests, Michael Roche and Nancy Cook.

Juniors leading the Grand March: Joan Knapp, Verne Bryant, Mabel Richardson, Louis Bixby, Mary Giniusz, Donald Dow, Karen Semb, and Daniel Stockwell.

PROM A SUCCESS...

The receiving line:
Verne Bryant, Mabel Richardson, Mary Giniusz, Daniel Stockwell, Mrs. and Mr. Stockwell, Mrs. and Mr. Hmielewski, Mrs. and Mr. Cook, Mrs. and Mr. Hastings, Alfred Letourneau, Charlotte Hall, Eleanor Paluilis, and Dennis Bundy.

David Stockwell, Betty Mattson, Frances Donahue, and John Nilsen.

Self-conscious moments in the receiving line.

GLEE CLUB

The "Mahar Philharmonic Society" we might call it if we wished to use a grander phrase. Again this year a large group under Mr. Hall's enthusiastic direction has enjoyed "making music" together.

MUSIC AT MAHAR

Roberta Powers, Drum Majorette.

SENIOR TWIRLERS: Gayle Johnson, Judy White, Roberta Powers, Judy Punis, and Joyce Fellows.

The music department, under Mr. Hall, was especially busy this year earning money for an organ for the school. After many programs put on by this department, plus donations, there was finally enough money to buy the organ.

Both bands have worked hard all year and the glee club has done its share. The senior band played during football season and then at the Christmas assembly. The junior band played for the one-act plays in December. The glee club sang at the Christmas assembly, presenting as one of its numbers the beautiful "Gloria" from the 12th Mass.

In February the music department presented a pops concert in memory of Mr. Manning, our former guidance director. The money went to the Manning family and to the revolving fund started by Mr. Manning for the purpose of making loans to students taking college board examinations.

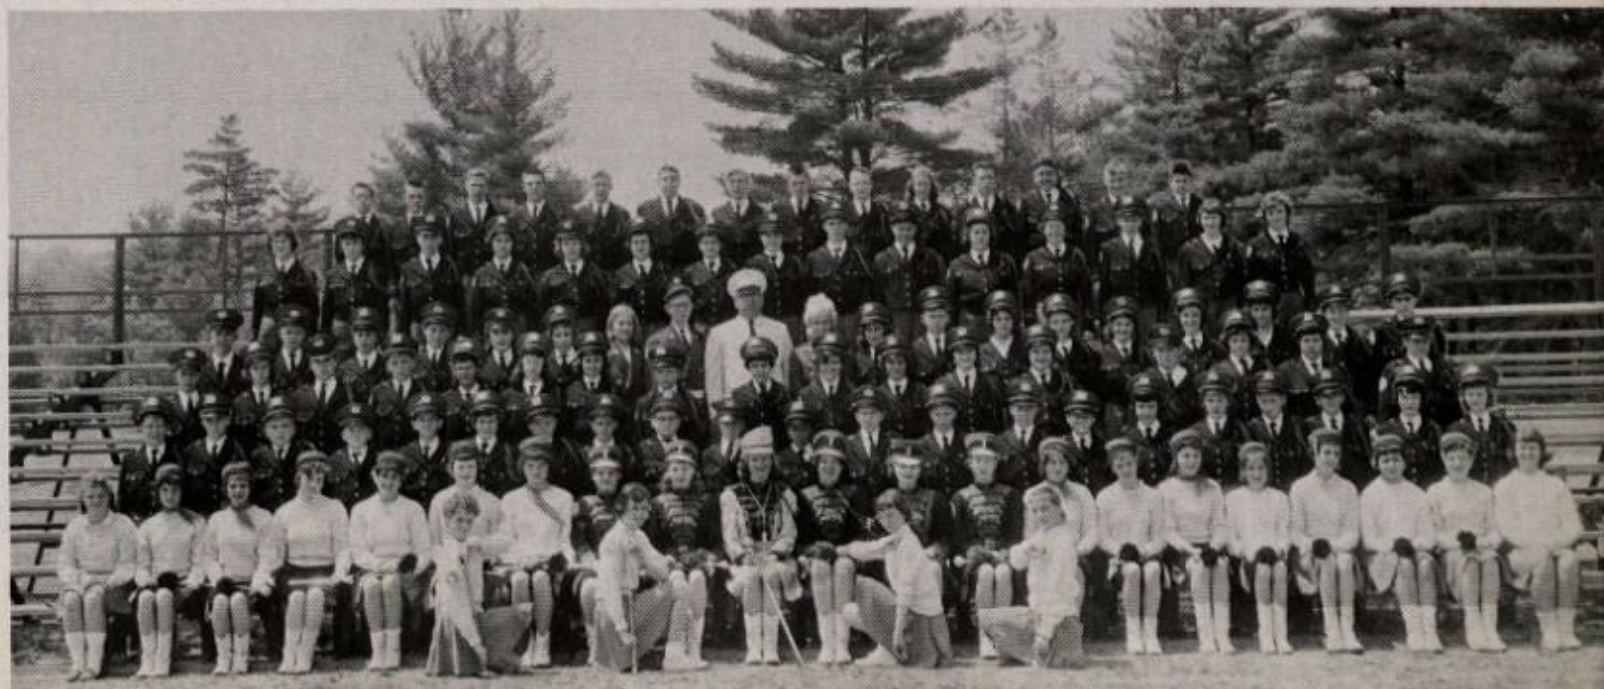

April 9, 10, and 11, the music department staged its annual minstrel show, which was a big success. On that same weekend, four seniors represented Mahar at the annual All-State music festival in Hyannis. They were Nancy Cloutier, Virginia Richards, William Amidon and Ward Taylor. In May the band played in a combined concert with Murdock High School. Also in May was the spring concert, which was put on in appreciation of the support that the towns gave to the programs which were presented to raise money for the organ. The high school band and the junior band played in this concert. The following week in May the bands and the high school glee club went to Hadley for the Western Massachusetts Music Festival. The high school band led the parade.

The high school band played for the last time this year at the commencement week programs.

SPORTS

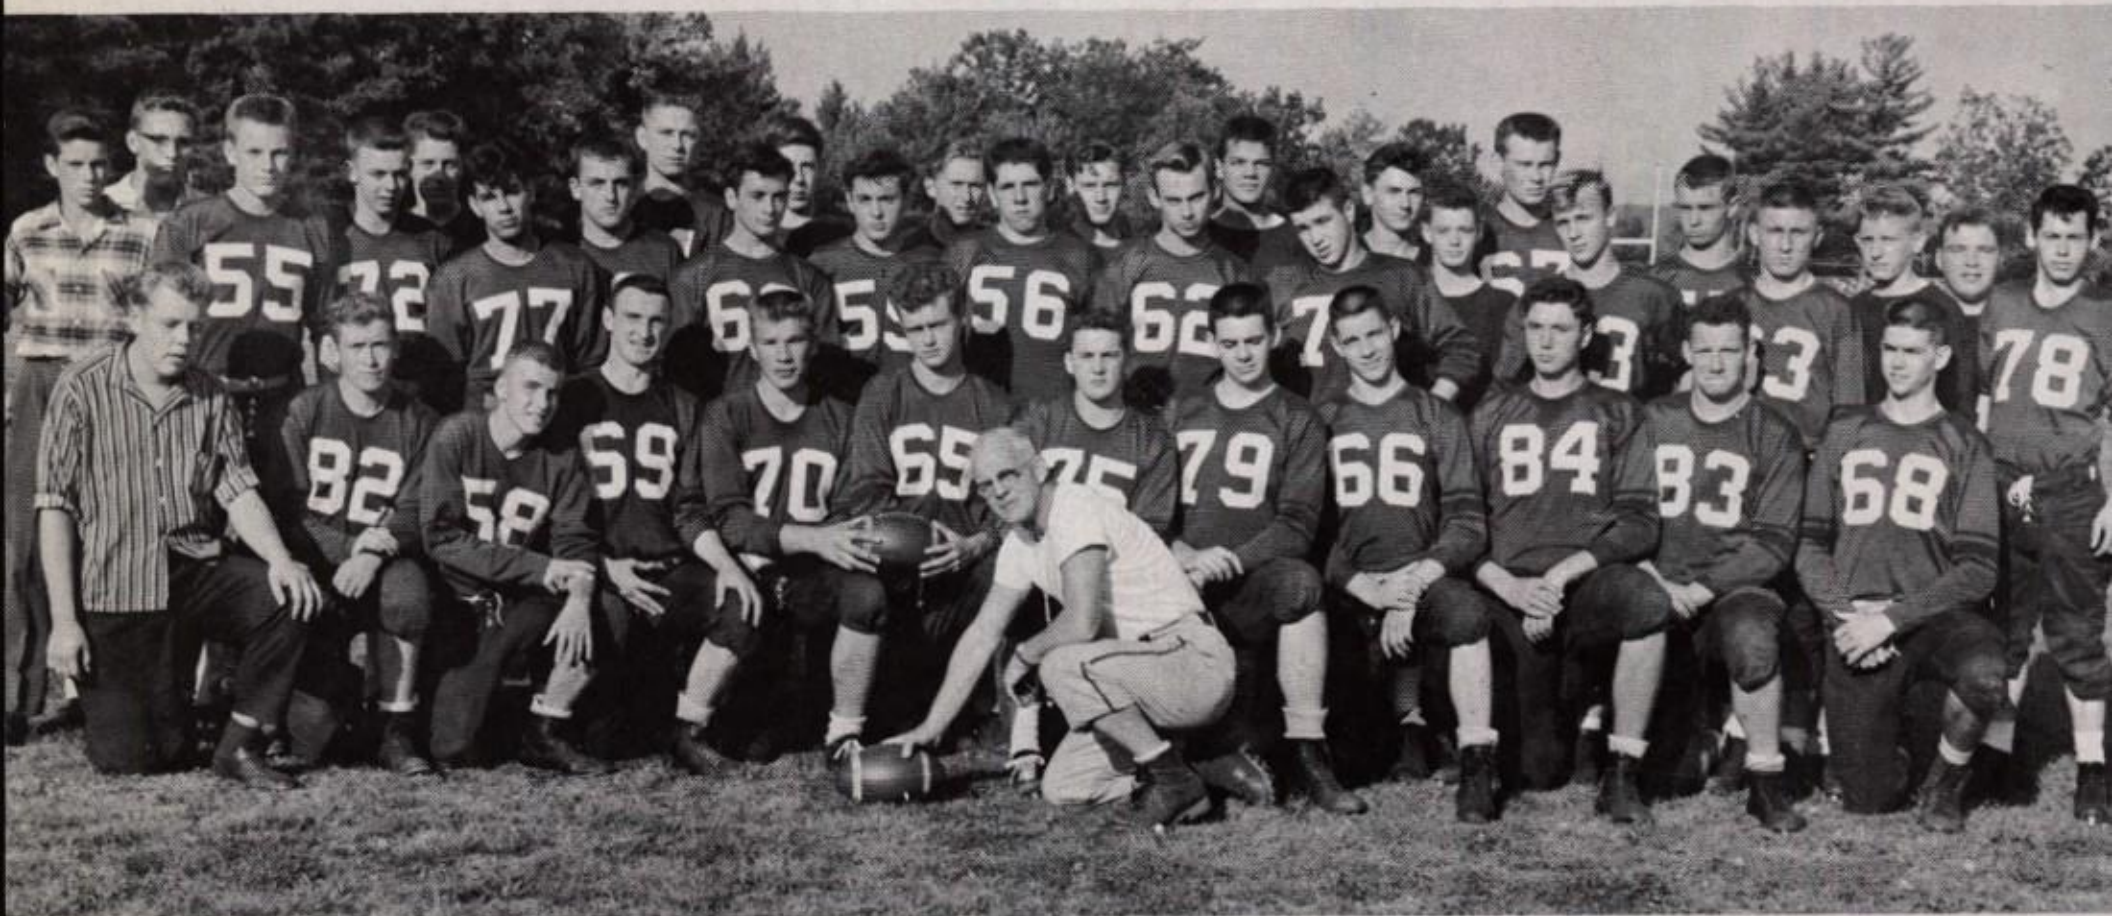

FOOTBALL

Clifford Shatos and Jimmy Hennessy,
Co-Captains.

Led by coaches Bartlett and Ellis, the Mahar varsity football team enjoyed a successful 4-4-1 season, including a 3-3-1 Intercounty League record. Victories included those over archrival Athol and intercounty champion Murdock. Mahar's losses were all close games; the worst margin of defeat was only eight points; so the record is more impressive than it at first appears. Perhaps the most exciting game of the season was the Ware game. Mahar scored two touchdowns in the final two minutes of the first half and went on to tie Ware in the final score.

Co-Captains Jimmy Hennessy and Clifford Shatos did a fine job of leading the team. Hennessy (end) and Shatos (halfback) were chosen for the All-Intercounty League first team. James Brown, Alfred Letourneau and David Bryniarski received honorable mention. Shatos also led Western Massachusetts individual scorers with 92 points.

First Row: E. Piragis, L. Moore, D. Bundy, T. Patrick, C. Shatos, J. Hennessy, J. Brown, F. Driscoll, A. Letourneau, P. Chiasson, D. Bryniarski, J. Magee. Second Row: C. Kelley, R. Gore, R. Niedzwiedz, J. Dahl, R. Shepard, D. Stockwell, D. Stockwell, T. Valade, M. Niedzwiedz, T. Kelleher, R. Ward, K. Burrill, J. Czernick, R. Rowe, R. Barnes. Third Row: S. Shatos, K. Novak, R. Mitzkovitz, K. Whitaker, J. Nilson, E. Maleski, C. Heath, T. Bassett, R. Blake, A. Knapp, R. Barrett. Coach: Mr. Bartlett.

Everyone's stretching . . .

Everyone's reaching . . .

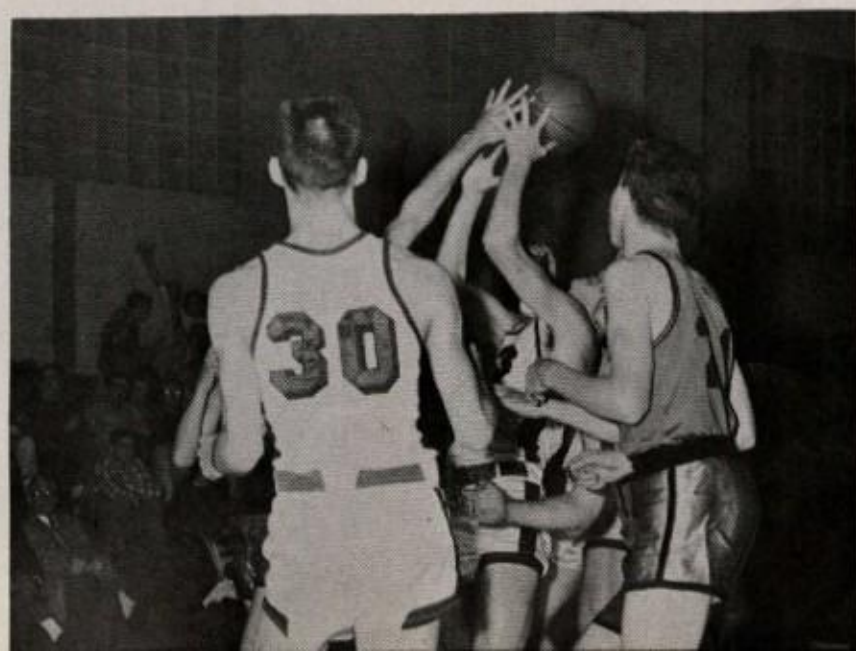

BOYS' BASKETBALL

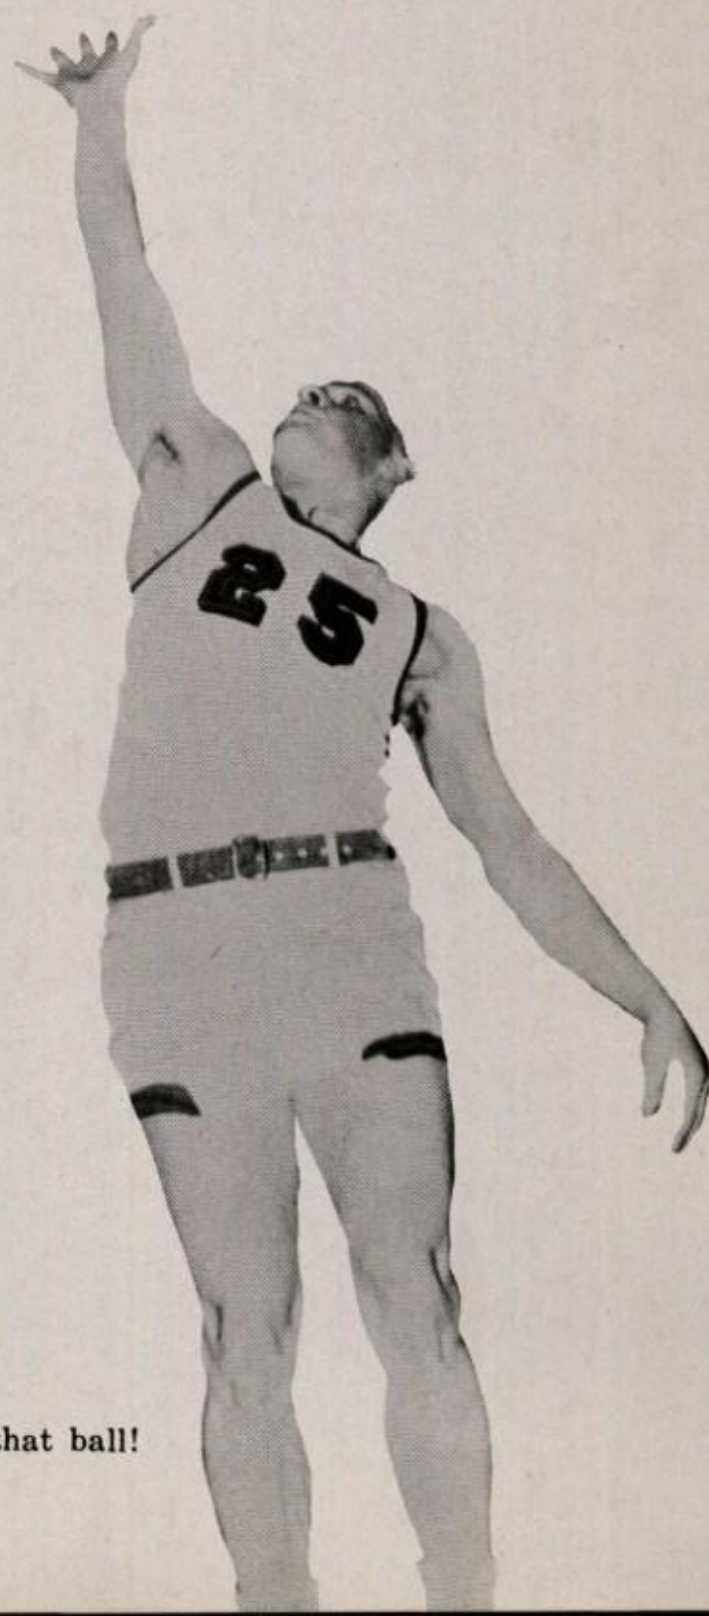

Mahar ended the basketball season with a record of two wins and fourteen losses after playing a very tough schedule. Coach Kearney's charges started slowly but played very well the remainder of the season. One of the best games of the season was a 58-57 overtime defeat of highly touted South Hadley.

"Pee Wee" Letourneau captained this year's team. John Magee led the team in scoring, with a 13-points-a-game average. Juniors Charles Harris and James Vladyka saw a lot of action and should greatly help next year's team.

Everyone's straining . . .

To get that ball!

"Pitch to me in there, boy!"

Another run for Mahar!

He's safe a mile!

This one's close!

MAHAR SPLITS SEASON

The Mahar baseball team, composed mainly of sophomores and juniors, finished their season with a poor won-lost record. Captain Jim Brown led the team quite ably and pitched some fine ball. Coach Joseph Spadafora, assisted by George Darey, did a commendable job in instilling spirit and hustle into the players. Several boys gained valuable experience this year and should help improve diamond prospects for next year.

Mahar played the following teams this year: Greenfield, Turners Falls, Arms Academy, Gardner, Pioneer, Keene, Narragansett, Murdock, and Athol.

The best game was an extra-inning loss to Greenfield, the Valley League Champions.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year's team was made up of eight veterans of last year: Judy Punis, Eleanor Paluilis, Michaelae Thayer, Jackie Raymond, Muriel Holden, Sandra Goselin, Mary Lou Tepper, and Carol Webster.

Although the varsity girls played very hard, they won only one game and lost nine. The junior varsity played ten games, plus two unscheduled games with Gardner Junior High, and lost all of them.

The girls' basketball team hopes to win many of their games next year.

JUNIOR VARSITY TEAM

SOFTBALL

The Mahar softball team, coached by Miss Haslett, had a fairly successful season, winning four out of eight games played. The girls played with the kind of spirit and determination shown by Dianne Crosby in the picture below, but they also faced some determined opposition—also shown!

GAMES PLAYED

Mahar 13		Frontier 18
Mahar 25		Pioneer 15
Mahar 11		Athol 8
Mahar 6		Gardner 24
Mahar 8		Athol 6
Mahar 14		Pioneer 15
Mahar 4		Gardner 20
Mahar 2		Frontier 14

This is the kind of opposition we were up against!

This is the kind of determination we showed!

FIELD HOCKEY

Miss Haslett, Field Hockey Coach.

Down the field with plenty of zest!

Although Mahar did not win many games, the team improved a great deal over last year. The varsity won two games, tied one, and lost seven. Even so, the girls had a great deal of fun playing, as our pictures show.

The javelin thrower.

Hi, Myrtle!

Stretchin' and strainin'.

The track team, in its second year of competition, showed much improvement over last year. Holdovers from last year plus many newcomers gave the team strength in every event. Coaches Bartlett and Hindley deserve credit for helping the boys with the finer points of the various events.

The team competed with the following area teams: Amherst, Athol, Gardner, South Hadley, and Frontier. They also took part in the Western Massachusetts track meet.

"He floats through the air with the greatest of ease."

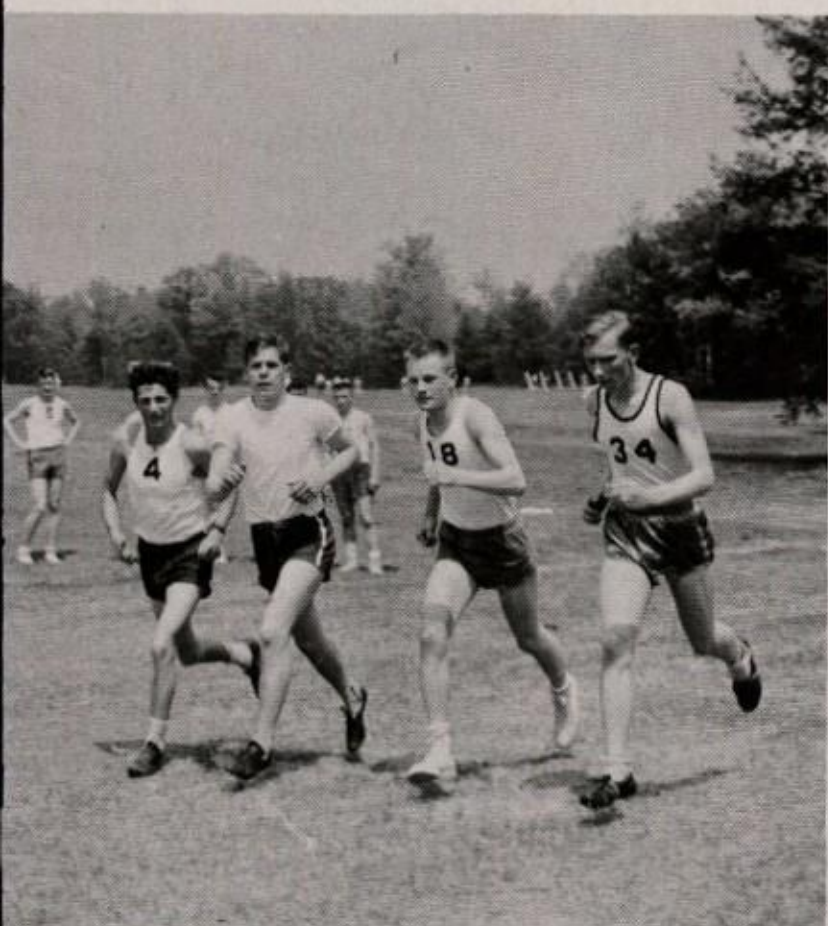

TRACK TEAM

TRACK

Alfred Letourneau shows his jumping style for Coach Bartlett and members of the team.

School records set this year:

High Jump—5 ft. 7 in.—by John Magee

Shot Put—41 ft. 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ in.—by David

Bryniarski

Mile Run—5 min. 1 sec.—by Ward Taylor

Quarter Mile—57 sec.—by John Czernick

Half Mile—2 min. 14 sec.—by David Wilson

Come on, boys, you'll have to do better than that! Take a look at Czernick and Stockwell.

This is the way men used to travel before they learned to walk erect.

FOOTBALL BANQUET. Alfred Letourneau, Clifford Shatos, James Brown, Jim Hennessy, Mr. Hellen, and Mr. Bartlett are shown enjoying themselves at the football banquet given on December 4. The banquet, to honor the football squad, was sponsored by the Methodists Men's Club and was given at the Methodist Church. Rev. Butler was the master of ceremonies, and Rev. Adams was the principal speaker. The coaches, Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Ellis, also spoke.

Closing of the U. S. Veterans Administration contact office in Greenfield may be necessary but the resulting change in procedure should be studied carefully before it is arranged permanently.

U. S. Rep. Silvio O. Conte was informed recently by P. N. Brownstein, chief benefits director of V.A., of the ending of fulltime service here on June 23. He noted contact service is available at the administration facility in Northampton. He also said records will be transferred to Boston.

No doubt a considerable saving will result if the reduction includes many of the 203 contact offices now in existence. That, however, should not be the governing factor. The question due most consideration is whether adequate service
